WEDNESDAY EVENING. APRIL 10

BLOODY DEEDS CONFESSED,-Elli-on Hat field, one of the participants in the Hatfield-McCoy feud, who is confined in the Pike county jail, in Kentucky, has made a confession to State Attorney Lee Ferguson. "I was present," he said, "and partie, and in the murder of the three McCoy brothers— Tolbert Farley and Randolph. The three prothers were taken from a school house to Logan county, W. Va, where they had been guarded for a day and a night, and blought over to the Tug river, which separates West Virginia and Kentucky. About fifty feet from the river Carpenter field them to a pawpaw bash and hung a lantern over their heads. Asse Hatfield then eald to them, Boye, if you have any neare to make with your Maker you had better make it? Toiyour maker you had better make it? Tui-bert and Randoinh began praying, but Far ley did not. Before the roys had time to finish their prayers John Hatfiel seet Far ley dead. Ansethen gave the order to free and shot as he gave the word, kitting Towers and then emptying the contents of the resnot as he gave the word, killing fothers and then emptying the contents of the revolver into the dead body. Alexander Musser fired and killed Randoloh McCoy. The others followed suit and all the bodies were riddled with bullets. After the boys were killed Wall Hatfield administered an oast to all of us binding us to take the life of the first who divulved the pages of any with first who divulsed the name of any who were along." Captain Ha field said that he and Tom Wallace shot J if McCoy after he had escaped from them. The prisoner also gave the particulars of the murder of Alifera and Calvin McCoy, in which he took part. Nine of the Halfield faction on a Sunday night in January, 1888, crossed the river into Kentucky under the command of Jim Vance. They surrounded the McCoy homestead, fired the house and killed the girl as she attempted to exit guish the flames Cap and John Hatfield both claimed that they killed Calvin Mc Coy and bragged shout it.

sunday - Carriers window open at 9,00 and ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE

THE GAZETTE, chronologically, is in the MINETIETH year of its existence, and is not only the oldest paper in the State, but, with few exceptions, in the country. Notwithstanding the fulness of its years, it has kept, and will continue to keep, abreast of the times in all that pertains to a NEWS paper, furnishing its readers daily with a perfect mirror of passing events, domestic and foreign

Its facilities for obtaining news as they increase are taken advantage of and used for the benefit of its readers, who are thus kept thoroughly posted as to all that is of interest politically, socially, financially or commercially. Special attention is given to matters concerning the State and its welfare, while its local columns contain all that is of the slightest interest to Alexandrians. Its regular correspondence from Washington and Richmond are features of peculiar interest, as attested by the eagerness with which they are read and copied by other papers, while its editorial department, conducted with reference to the best interests of the city, State FAT SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO ALL and country, will continue to advocate what is believed to be right, just, honest and patriotic.

With a view to the interest of merchants, farmers and all interested, its commercial columns are carefully edited and its market reports are acknowledged by all to be faithful and accurate. Through all this section of the State, and in all parts of the country where Virginians have located, there will the GAZETTE generally be found, and thus as an advertising medium it has few equals outside the large cities. In the household, counting room and workshop it is an ever-welcome
